INTRO SHORT

Stefan Erhalder is a sound designer, recording engineer, ex drummer and radio show host. And he likes to play around with cameras and synthesizers.

BIOGRAPHY SHORT

Stefan Erhalder is a Basel based sound engineer and musician, specialized in jacking Techno, Acid and Classic Electro. He runs a Youtube Channel where he shares insights about his production techniques. Used to play the drums, plays electronic live performances and hosting the fm radio show «SlackJackerz – The Rave Channel» with friends.

2020 he started the Chip Stress label, mainly for his electro productions. He is one half of Aux Couture, together with Nenad J. - focusing on functional techno to make you sweat. With their debut «M.F. Dance» they scored some nice feedback from the dancing crowds as well as some veteran djs.
